

Work For Us

We're looking for you:

Thank you for your interest in a position with Calleo.

We help our clients reduce the amount of paper in their workflow and the inefficiencies associated with this paper. A typical engagement will start with an Assessment of their paper processes, and if the client sees value in our services & technology offering then we proceed to implement the technology behind our recommendation.

Each component of the engagement will require a specific set of expertise - assessment, implementation, project management, software customization, etc. If you know your vertical industry well, are considered an expert in your field, have integrity, and a solid work ethic then we want to hear from you.

Calleo provides a challenging, rewarding and a positive work environment, with the opportunity to apply your expertise, demonstrate skills, gain recognition and make a significant contribution. As a Calleo Consultant you'll have autonomy, flexibility, mobility and the opportunity for increased income. Interested? Please follow this link...
